Our evening contemporary has won a new name-an original one too-and actually forms the subject of an illustration in the latest issue of $4.50 | the Estrella Oriental, The "Maiden Libeller" is depicted, clothed in a Marlborough House dress suit and the famous patented Club steps smile, looking down sympathetically at Jonah J. Francis, Esq., Q.C., who is trying to squeeze himself out of the intricate folds of a Saturday evening's copy of the China Mail. "Brownie"is supposed to be an inside passenger with Ionah, but the artist evidently forgotto give the eminent paragraphist a distinctive personality. The new name for the Mail is the Sall Fish Wrabber; the eminent lawyer and philanthropist is suggestively described as "Ottridius." We don't know what the last named formidable jaw-breaker may happen to mean, but we hope it is not too gross a libel on the embryo Lord Chancellor,

IN a place like Hongkong, which is all crooks and corners, the necessity for close supervision over the ubiquitous 'rickky and his vehicle is a matter of considerable importance as was brought home to the authorities in a startling manner this morning. The facts of the case are as follows:-The Rev. Father Benet went out for an airing in a 'ricksha in the direction of Happy Valley last evening, but on going down the incline leading from the Naval Hospital to Happy Valley, the coolie in the shafts lost control over his vehicle, which dashed down the hill at lightning speed and steered straight for the monument, near Wanchai Market, which it ran into full tilt. The vehicle capsized and the sev. 0.75 gentleman was pitched out with such violence that he sustained a fracture of one of his thighs and the rickley, evidently fearing the censequences, jumped into the shafts and bolted away 1.10 for his life. Some gentlemen who were passing soon came to the rescue of the injured passenger, and procuring a stretcher, had him safely conveyed to the hospital.

In last night's issue of the China Mail there is streets, whether they were not very much better a paragraph which if not contradicted is calcu- off with twenty-five shillings a week at home lated to upset the equilbrium of the poor old lady | then they are with from forty to fifty dollars per who is it's only hope and support. (FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

19th January, 1891. The unpleasant has again become the lot of the foreign population. Only about two weeks ago some missionaries of the American Presbyterian Mission, the Rev. Dr. Hunter with his family and the Rev. Mr.- Lane, arrived in the city of Chiningchow for the purpose of establishing their permanent residence. For over ten years mission-work has been carried on in that city by the Presbyterian Mission, and in the spring of last year a house was rented from one of the wealthiest men of the place. Immediately The Viceroy Li Hung-chang has issued a after this successful move, the missionaries left, intending to come again in the early autumn. Hardly had they left, however, when opposition appeared, and placards were posted in the main streets.
